ABOUT US

ITS is a Tribal Entity owned and operated by the Passamaquoddy. The Passamaquoddy Tribe is an indigenous Native American tribe of eastern Maine, the easternmost tribe in the United States. Culturally, the Passamaquoddy are one of several tribes of the Wabanaki (dawnland) group.

In 2018, the Tribe has entered a new era of Tribal business development, expansion of the Tribal blueberry operations producing over 6 million pounds of berries annually and also the addition of a Tribal Maple Syrup operation in the mountains of western Maine. The Passamaquoddy Tribe trust lands total 130,00 acres across Maine. An era of renewed cultural growth and education has arrived.

SOLE-SOURCE OPTION

With regard to Tribally-owned 8(a) participants, 13 CFR 124.506(b)(3) states that there is no requirement that a procurement must be competed whenever possible before it can be accepted on a sole source basis for Tribally-owned concern. Another advantage of sole source awards, as a matter of agency acquisition planning, is that under 13 CFR 124.517, an 8(a) award is not protestable.
